

5 Local Girls To Take Part In Y Sessions

Five local teenagers will get a jump on their elders in voting, as they participate Saturday at Whittier College in the first training sessions for the YMCA's seventh annual statewide model legislature.

Five girls from the Torrance Tri-Hi-Yolanda Goldsmith, Judy Nash, Doris Popovich, Ann Steinbaugh, and Linda Thistle—and five boys from Mira Costa High School will attend from this area YMCA Secretary Stan Roberts has announced.

At the meeting, the group will elect officers allotted to the Southland for next February's model legislature in Sacramento. A similar meeting is being held at Stanford University in Northern California.

More than 300 high schoolers will hear experts from public and private agencies explain government processes and legislative procedures.

'Ghost Trails' Party Given by Sorority

Torrance chapter of Epilon Sigma Alpha sorority entertained with an hilarious Ghost Trails party on Thursday evening. The group met at the corner of 186th and Crenshaw where they were met by a "ghost" who led them to the home of Lillian Sweargin, 18618 Crenshaw Blvd. where they were served a salad.

The guests were then directed to the corner of 180th and Ermita where they met two ghosts who led them to the home of Winona Jackson, 18020 Faysmith Ave. for the main course of their dinner Irene Roberts was co-hostess at this party.

After the dinner, the members were led by four ghosts to the home of Bonnie Allen, 3331 180th St. where coffee, pie and donuts were served. Enroute, Winona Jackson and Anne Smith were penalized by the ghosts for not following the directions. Penalty was the singing of "Auld Lang Syne."

Acting as ghosts for the evening were Junoretta Sara, Sue Ward, Carol Sue Jackson, Jackie Allen and Joyce Hutchison.

VOLLEYBALL TOMORROW

Volleyball will be the recreation of the morning for the Y-Wives tomorrow. The game will start at 9:30. Child care at the Methodist Church is supervised by Mrs. George Grogan, and Mrs. M. L. Harris, with Miss Ginny Sandstrom assisting.

Hostesses at the coffee break will be Misses Ray Stewart, and R. Bowen.

Any woman interested in attending, is invited. Included in the Y-wives are members from Torrance, Lynwood, Waverly, Hawthorne, Harbor City, Manhattan Beach and North Torrance. The YWCA building is located at 2320 Carson.

PTA Circus Tomorrow

A Western Show Circus, sponsored by Torrance Elementary School PTA, will hold its one and only showing at the school tomorrow at 2:30 p.m., with everyone invited.

Upper grade students of Torrance Elementary School will be dismissed at 2:30 p.m. while the primary grades will be dismissed at their usual time.

Featured in the Western show are dancing horses, five horse Liberty Drill, trick riding and roping, trick horses and dogs, and many other novelty and entertaining acts.

Food concessions will be open, serving everything from hamburgers and hot dogs to cotton candy and popcorn, and will not only be open during the show, but will start serving at 12 noon so that students who desire may buy their lunches at school that day.

Mrs. J. D. Luton, ways and means chairman, has announced that the Western Show this year is replacing the annual Halloween Carnival usually held by Torrance Elementary School PTA and that proceeds from this affair will be used to further student welfare and to aid in the Milk Fund.
